

April 14, 2022

Dear Donald,

Congratulations on your completion of the Vanderbilt University Web Development Boot Camp. You have been challenged in this endeavor, and you have broadened your professional network and gained in-demand knowledge and skills. Your effort over the past months is to be commended.

We know there are so many demands on your time including jobs, families, community involvement, hobbies, and plenty of other obligations. To complete a rigorous program such as this boot camp in concert with those demands is especially admirable.

Thank you for rewarding your ambition with us. We wish you the best in your future career and that you will be a champion for continuing education. Please stay in touch with your peers and instructors so your professional network can keep growing. You most likely will be in a position to provide opportunities to those following in your footsteps.

Warmest regards,

Philippe M. Fauchet, Ph.D.
Bruce and Bridgitt Evans Dean
Professor of Electrical Engineering
School of Engineering

M. Eric Johnson, Ph.D.
Ralph Owen Dean
Bruce D. Henderson Professor of Strategy
Owen Graduate School of Management